

WORK FOR FEMALE HANDS.

More Suggestions As to the Best Employment for Girls.

Future Independence Secured Early in Life.

No More Letters Eligible After Noon To-Day.

In accordance with the previous announcement, no letters received after 12 o'clock noon to-day will be eligible for consideration in the contest for the best essay on "What Shall We Do With Our Girls?" This contest, judging from the number of letters received, has struck a popular chord in the public heart, and many valuable hints and suggestions have been offered by The Evening World readers, which every parent will appreciate.

A Thoughtful View.

Let the parents of our girls give them as thorough and liberal an education as lies in their power. While school children, place it in their way to earn their own pocket-money—a certain sum weekly—by good conduct, excellent scholarship, or cheerful aid in home duties. This will teach an appreciation of the value of money, and will imbue the girls with a love of self-help and sturdy independence. Acquainted with the delights of self-earned money, there will be lacking in later days, if thrown upon their own resources, that false pride that is so great an obstacle to honest work.

Make Them Women.

Don't impress upon their minds that the duties of a household are menial and a bar to gentility. Don't encourage them to allow their mothers to work and wait upon them and slave in the kitchen while they pre-empt the parlor.

Don't teach them that their only chance of gaining a rich husband is to appear dainty, stately, haughty and entirely ignorant of the duties of a household. Don't tell them that their only chance of securing a rich husband is to appear dainty, stately, haughty and entirely ignorant of the duties of a household.

PASSING THE 90,000 MARK.

Harlem Council's Total Assuming Extensive Proportions.

Progress of Other Contestants in the Lodge and Club Contest.

Harlem Council, 213, C. B. L., passes the 90,000 mark today, and now leads The Evening World's Lodge and Club Contest with 91,124. Metropolitan Lodge, 280, K. of P., holds second place with 84,374.

The Trainers' Relief Association, M. F. R., still comes on in third place with 71,745, and in fourth position the James E. Reilly Association has increased its vote to 57,427.

From a Mother of Four.

Let me and my children. Begin each day with help divine, and ask for strength of mind and body to be a pattern for our girls from childhood on.

Let me and my children. Begin each day with help divine, and ask for strength of mind and body to be a pattern for our girls from childhood on.

Home-Makers Wanted.

It appears to me that in training our girls for life's work we sometimes forget what sphere they are intended for. By their natural endowments, to properly fill. No one thinks of harnessing a sheep to a reaping machine; its place is in the pasture.

Enforce Section 20. It is not a question of "What shall we do with our girls?" that ought to be brought to the notice of the public, but a question of "What shall we do for our girls?"
